

Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern:

Greg Barton has contributed greatly to the success of this company throughout his employment with FAI Technology, Inc. Over the years, some of his contributions have included developing and refining our operations and opening various departments.

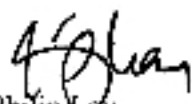

His vision was also directly responsible for FAI's ISO programs, it's internet presence and other business achievements and programs.

We are sorry to see him leave us and we highly recommend him for any position that he may pursue.

We wish him the very best in his future undertakings.

Please feel free to contact the undersigned should you need any additional information.

Sincerely,

Philip Lau
CFO & Vice President
FAI Technology, Inc.